My dear Mrs. Chapman -

I am much obliged for your beautiful present of the Liberty Bell of last year - In return for your request that I should contribute something for next year's volume, I send a poem, written some time back, but never published - I sent it to R.D. Webb who did not like it perhaps

Ms. A. 9. 2. 24. 13

Your decision may not be so unfavourable. If you should think it worthy of insertion, perhaps you will give it the benefit of your corrections, before putting it in type — and pray feel no scruple in rejecting it unlimitedly unless it appear to merit a place —

Your friend gratefully & truly, Lizzy Poole —
